English Major Map

Bachelor of Arts

	FIRST YEAR	SECOND YEAR	THIRD YEAR
Get the Courses You Need	<ul> <li>Consult your List of Courses</li> <li>Visit an advisor</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Complete your         <ul> <li>legislative             requirements</li> </ul> </li> <li>Finish your Area F         <ul> <li>coursework</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Continue to make progress in your</li> <li>program</li> <li>Consider a summ course</li> </ul>
Get Relevant Experience	<ul> <li>Join a student organization</li> <li>Activate your Handshake profile</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Visit Career Services to meet with an internship advisor</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Go to the Fall Internship Fair</li> <li>Apply for a paid Internship</li> </ul>
Connect with the Community	<ul> <li>Volunteer with a community organization</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Get involved with RCHSS's 365</li> <li>Days of Learning and Service</li> </ul>	• Take a 365 days of Learning and Service class
Think Globally	<ul> <li>Consider signing up for a world language</li> </ul>	• Attend the Education Abroad Fair	<ul> <li>Study Abroad in person or virtuall</li> </ul>

FOURTH YEAR • Petition to graduate in Owl Express er • Sign up for a Mock Interview • Go to the oncampus Job Fair • Do the Adobe Creative Jam to get hands-on experience on the yearly 365 theme Be a Conversation Partner

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

The Bachelor of Arts in English degree provides an in-depth study in the many disciplines within our department, including literature, cultural studies, writing, rhetoric, linguistics, theory, and film. Of particular significance are our screen and TV writing courses and our professional writing courses that support students interested in a range of writing careers, video game storytelling, nonprofit writing, digital content production, and creative writing.