

Organizational Professional Communication Major Map

Bachelor of Science

FIRST YEAR

SECOND YEAR

THIRD YEAR

FOURTH YEAR

Get the Courses You Need

- Consult your List of Courses
- Visit an advisor

- Complete your legislative requirements
- Finish your Area F coursework

- Continue to make progress in your program
- Consider a summer course

- Petition to graduate in Owl Express

Get Relevant Experience

- Join a student organization
- Activate your Handshake profile

- Visit Career Services to meet with an internship advisor

- Go to the Fall Internship Fair
- Apply for a paid Internship

- Sign up for a Mock Interview
- Go the on-campus Job Fair

Connect with the Community

- Volunteer with a community organization

- Get involved with RCHSS's 365 Days of Learning and Service

- Take a 365 days of Learning and Service class

- Do the Adobe Creative Jam to get hands-on experience on the yearly 365 theme

Think Globally

- Consider signing up for a world language

- Attend the Education Abroad Fair

- Study Abroad in person or virtually

- Be a Conversation Partner

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

The Organizational and Professional Communication degree is designed to prepare you for a successful professional career in management, training, consulting, development, human resources, or related fields. You will learn about interviewing, Mass communication, leadership communication, intercultural communication and communication law, ethics, diversity and more. You will conduct communication audits at area companies to measure employee satisfaction with company communication practices.